

Advocate Syed Mahbubul Alam, LL.M
Advocate and Policy Analyst
Technical Advisor, The Union

Syed Mahbubul Alam a public health and environment policy expert and working on policy advocacy issues over 19 years. Presently he is working as a technical advisor of The Union, Bangladesh. He also founders of the Center for Law and Policy Affairs, a policy advocacy and research-based NPO organization. He also co-founder of Save the Environment Movement, a leading CSO organization in Bangladesh. Throughout his career, he has supported and led tobacco control law and policy development. He served as a legal expert on tobacco control law and policy drafting committees of Ministry of Healy and Family Welfare of Bangladesh.

Mr. Alam was the director at WBB Trust a policy advocacy organization, where he was also involved to analysis, prepared recommendation and capacity building of CSOs on Urbanization, Transportation, Child and Women Rights, Water and Economic and Social Justice related law and Policy. Some of the key achievements of those contributions are; incorporate environmental protection and conservation in the constitution of Bangladesh; emphasize prevention in the health policy, Multimodal Transport Policy, Amendment of Environment Court Act, enact Women Policy, enact Child Act, the establishment of National Tobacco Control Cell, separate Ministry for Railway etc.

He holds an LL.M from World University of Bangladesh, and an advocateship from Bangladesh Bar Council. He also received Global leadership in Tobacco Control Course from John Hopkins School of Public Health and Advocacy training from Advocacy Institute.

M-+8801550600206, T-+88028881004, E-info@clpatrust.org, www.clpatrust.org