

Aminur Rahman
Member (retired), National Board of Revenue amin_iba_tax@hotmail.com,

Mr. Aminur Rahman has obtained B. A with Honours in Economics from Dhaka University. Subsequently he obtained MBA from Institute of Business Administration (IBA).He has also obtained LLB from National University. He joined Taxation Cadre of Bangladesh Civil Service in 1983. During his tenure in Civil Service he joined courses in Harvard University, USA and IMF Institute in Singapore. He hold many important posts in the Taxation Cadre. He served in the tax policy wing of the National Board of Revenue as First Secretary as well as Member. He was Member Secretary of Tax Reforms for Four years He retired as Member, National Board of Revenue in 2011. After retirement he is involved as guest Faculty in Dhaka University, BRAC University, Institute of Public Finance. He is also consultant of IFC of World Bank and UNDP. He worked with CTFK as Consultant regarding tobacco taxation in Bangladesh since 2016.